NCRMLS expands, now covers 38% of NC

Eastern North Carolina – Aug 31, 2021 – North Carolina Regional MLS (NCRMLS), one of the most extensive multiple listing services in North Carolina, has expanded its alliance of Members with the addition of Johnston County Association of REALTORS®, Orange Chatham Association of REALTOR®, and MLS of Goldsboro.

With the most geographically expansive and growing reach in the state, NCRMLS represents 9,150 REALTORS® and Appraisers, with a major footprint currently covering 315 cities and towns in 27 counties. These new partnerships will expand NCRMLS's reach to 361 Cities and Towns in 31 counties, representing some 10,300 REALTORS® and Appraisers, encompassing over 38 percent of the Tar Heel State.

"NCRMLS is looking forward to our new partnerships. By spanning across multiple MLS boundaries throughout North Carolina, together we are helping simplify data access for our members. We believe combined cooperation will strengthen the future of the MLS industry, and all our Members will benefit from this new partnership," said NCRMLS CEO Daniel Jones.

The NCRMLS cooperative consolidation movement greatly simplifies NCRMLS Member REALTORS®' lives by giving them one set of rules with a robust, streamlined MLS system that provides them the essential services and powerful best-in-class MLS tools with the training members want and expects — all from a single MLS platform.
